Today's date: _____

I wish to apply to exhibit my art in NASHVILLE'S INTERNATIONALS II at Centennial Art Center, October 3-31, 2008, and agree to the following::

1. Applicants must be legal residents.
2. The artist must submit digital images (JPG, 600KB to 1MB, {and around 300 DPI resolution}) on a clearly labeled CD, representative of 5 works with this application.* You may also include your resume' and artist's statement with the application.
3. If chosen for inclusion in the exhibition, artist must exhibit a minimum of 3 wrks. (The works exhibited may be different from the submitted examples, but must be of a similar style. The total number of works exhibited per artist will be determined after all artists are selected.)
4. All works submitted are subject to approval by the Nashville Metro Board of Parks and Recreation and Art Center Director. Works considered non-compatible with the program of the Board of Parks will be excluded from the exhibit.
5. The artist is responsible for transportation of artwork to and from the gallery. Works must be ready to install, i.e. clean, wired for hanging, mounted, and labeled, etc.
6. Neither the Board of Parks nor Centennial Art Center staff assumes any financial responsibility for any loss to any artist that might result from fire, vandalism, theft or any other reason.
7. The Art Center installs exhibits but may require your assistance.
8. All sales of art made during the exhibition are made through Metro Parks' Centennial Art Center. Sales tax will be collected. The Metro Government retains 20% of the sales price. Artists are paid 80% of the pre-tax sales price within approximately four to six weeks of the closing date, by check, issued through Metro Government Department of Finance, Division of Accounts.
9. The Board of Parks, Gallery Manager, or artist may void this agreement by a 30-day notice.
10. If chosen to exhibit, you will be notified and further procedural details will follow.
11. Deadline for application: Wednesday, August 6.
